STATUES UNVEILED AT CHICKAMAUGA

STATE MONUMENTS DEDICATED THIS WEEK.

Blue and Gray to Meet in Fraternal Love On the Historic Battlefield—Interesting Program Arranged—Enormous Crowd Expected On the Big Days.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 16.—This is to be the most notable week in the history of Chattanooga. It is even a notable one in the history of the nation, which sees the opening of the first memorial park authorized by the government to the bravery of the blue as well as the gallantry of the gray.

There are to be many things in the way of entertainment, both profitable and pleasurable. Under the big tent to-night General John B. Gordon delivers his lecture, "The Last Days of the Confederacy," while on the other side of the city the Fourteenth Ohio Infantry Battalion band will give a promenade concert in the grove, where they will be encamped during the week near the National cemetery, the grounds to be illuminated and decorated for the occasion.

Wednesday is the day of state dedications. Michigan is first on the program, the hour named being 9 o'clock. Ohio will dedicate its fifty-six monuments at noon. The place selected is Snodgrass Hill. That, of all other spots of interest in the park, is the most accessible. Governor McKinley will deliver an oration, and at its close will formally transfer the monuments to Secretary of War Lamont, as the representative of the national government. This is to be the general type of the program to be adopted for the exercises of each state, the other states being Minnesota, Indiana, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Michigan and Missouri.

Minnesota will dedicate at 2 o'clock the afternoon of the 18th at Snodgrass Hill; Indiana at Lytle Hill, same hour and date; Wisconsin at another part of the field, same hour and date; Michigan, same hour and date, and Massachusetts at the same hour, but on Orchard Knob, in the suburbs of Chattanooga, where its only monument stands.

Missouri will not dedicate until the forenoon of the 20th, owing to a delay in completing the erection of her monuments. They are on the ground, but not in position. The detailed programme for the dedication exercises of this state has not been given out here. Indiana will dedicate at Lytle Hill, Wednesday, at 2 o'clock. One of the orators will be Gen. Lew Wallace.

Gov. Altgeld will be the orator for Illinois, which will hold its exercises near the Widow Glenn's house at 2 o'clock the afternoon of the 18th.

Wednesday night the Society of the Army of the Cumberland will hold a reunion in the big tent, Gen. J. D. Morgan, of Illinois, presiding. Mayor Ochs will deliver the address of welcome. Gen. H. V. Boynton, secretary of the Army of the Cumberland, will respond. Senator Charles F. Manderson, of Nebraska, will deliver the annual address to the society. Brief addresses will be made by Lieutenant General Schofield, Gen. Granville Dodge, of Iowa; Gen. Horace Porter, of New York; Gen. Daniel Butterfield, of New York; and Gen. James H. Wilson, of Delaware. On this occasion there will be present a large number of members from the adjourned meeting of the Society of the Army of Tennessee, which meets in Cincinnati the two days preceding.

The big day at the park will be Thursday. Vice President Stevenson will preside. Bishop Galloway, of the Episcopal diocese of Tennessee, will open the exercises with prayer. The Georgia orators are Gen. John M. Palmer, of Illinois, and Gen. John B. Gordon, of Georgia. Secretary Lamont is down for a brief address of acceptance in formally assuming the park as a part of the war department's projects.

Thursday night at the tent there will be a general reunion of the Army of Tennessee (Union), over which Gen. Granville M. Dodge, president of the society, will preside. The speakers will be Gen. O. O. Howard, Gen. Joseph Wheeler, Gen. Willard Warner, Gen. Frank C. Armstrong, Col. Fred Grant, and Father Thomas Sherman, music of an excellent character being interpolated.

The grand military review and parade will take place Friday at 10 o'clock. All organized troops present are to take part, together with Secretary Lamont and other cabinet officers, the governors of a dozen states and their staffs, the congressional party, senators and other distinguished persons.

Immediately after the parade a battery at noon will fire a salute of forty-four guns from Orchard Knob, and directly after the luncheon hour the exercises of the day in the tent will begin, with Vice-President Stevenson presiding, the orators being General Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio and General William B. Bate of Tennessee. The exercises in the tent that night are to be under the auspices of the army of Northern Virginia and the army of the Potomac, General E. C. Walthall of Mississippi presiding. Colonel William C. Oates, governor of Alabama, is the orator.

This will close the week's events, with the exception of a grand war-song concert to be given under the tent Saturday night, to be led by the Fourteenth Regiment band and a chorus of 300 voices.

Homes have been provided for 2,000 people in the temporary barracks near the Stanton house, and 5,000 others have spoken for apartments in private houses. Track space has been engaged for over 100 Pullman cars, and the visitors will occupy them during their stay here.

The influx of visitors from Louisville Saturday and yesterday was tremendous. It was the liveliest Sunday in years.

The Fourteenth Ohio Infantry, between 800 and 900, arrived on a special train from Cincinnati this morning. The Toledo Cadets arrived last night. They number sixty and are mounted on bicycles. These two companies will be encamped near the National Cemetery. Governor McKinley, escorted by Cavalry Troop A, of Cleveland, comes Wednesday. The National Guard of Tennessee will be represented by 700 troops in camp, under the direction of Lieutenant Asher, of Memphis, and Sergeant Stratton, of Galatin. The tents, numbering 150, are going up and will be in readiness for the boys by Tuesday. Nearly every organized army or military company brings a band, and there is to be music galore throughout the week. Flags and bunting are appearing in profusion.

CHINESE ARE OBSTINATE.

Word of the Investigation Commission Is Delayed.

Foo Chow, China, Sept. 16.—The Chinese refuse to execute a single murderer implicated in the massacre of missionaries unless they are assured that with the execution of the men accused all other demands shall cease. The work of the British and American joint commission is therefore stopped. Without the presence of a foreign fleet no punishment for the massacre is probable. The Vegetarians are relying on official sympathy to gain seizure and to Couldn't Swallow the Whale Story.

Rev. Henry W. Pinkham, pastor of a Baptist church at Bridgeport, Conn., recently preached a sermon about Jonah, in which he took the stand that the whale did not swallow the prophet. Now, he is going to resign because his congregation says the Bible says the whale did swallow Jonah, and therefore it must be true. Rev. Pinkham became prominent some months ago, when one Sunday morning he placed on either side of his reading desk a kettle of beer, which he said he had bought on his way to church.

As Experience Taught Him.

The Silent Partner—That bargain sale in dress goods don't go at all. I marked 'em: "All wool, entirely new, twenty-two dollars a yard. Reduced to ninety-eight cents!" But it does no good.

The Head of the Firm—You've got lots to learn about this business yet. Mark 'em: "Damaged! Damaged! Were worth five dollars a yard, now going at one dollar and ninety-eight cents!" and they'll sell like hot cakes.—Puck.

Nearly Killed by a Rooster.

A 10-year-old Waterbury, Conn., girl named Teems met with a peculiar accident, in which she nearly lost her life. She began teasing a rooster, which turned and attacked her in the face, severing the temporal artery. The child was bleeding to death when the physician arrived and stopped the flow.

New Zealand Shaken.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 16.—The following Australian advices were brought by the Miowere: "New Zealand was visited August 17 and 18 by severe earthquakes, which did great damage at Taupo. The shocks lasted for several hours, gradually decreasing in severity. All the inhabitants camped out for the night, as falling chimneys and portions of houses rendered it unsafe to stay indoors."

STRUCK BY CYCLONE. NEAR MADISON

FREIGHT TRAINS WRECKED
SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

How the Three Trainmen Were Injured—Milk Train Demolished at St. Louis—Destructive Rain Storm at Kalamazoo, Mich.—Injury by the Elements in Different States.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 16.—The storm that swept over this section about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon developed into a cyclone a mile south of this city and resulted in a serious wreck on the Northwestern road near the Monon lake assembly grounds. A south-bound freight of empty cars was struck on the side and ten cars and the caboose were hurled down a twenty-five foot embankment. Three railway men were in the caboose and all were more or less injured. They were: Henry Starr, conductor, Baraboo; hurt in the head and chest. Joseph Feltz, Baraboo; brakeman; internally injured. Brant Foley, baggage and pumpman at Evansville; right leg smashed so badly that amputation may be necessary.

—, a tramp, who was in one of the wrecked box cars, had his head hurt, but he will live. Half the train, including the engine, was out of the path of the cyclone and was left on the track. The wrecked cars are badly damaged. The wind blew at a fearful velocity and several big trees at the scene were torn up by the roots. A barn belonging to Edward Daggett, living near by, was toppled over. The home of R. H. Osborne was struck by lightning, but not destroyed. The cyclone seemed to be local, the wind apparently striking the earth at this point, and as far as can be learned doing no damage elsewhere. Further particulars may prove, however, that the storm was more extended than is now known here. The storm was short and severe in this city, the lightning being frequent and sharp, but no wind blew here to any great extent. A perfect deluge of rain followed the cyclone. The wind struck Lakeside and blew over several large trees. Joseph Burrowbridge and family had a narrow escape. A large tree just grazed their house. The roof was twisted around. They took refuge in the cellar. The tobacco house owned by J. Younger was blown down.

Milk Train Wrecked.

East St. Louis, Ill., Sept. 16.—The Effingham accommodation, better known as the milk train, was wrecked at East Collinville switch, about thirteen miles from this city yesterday. The killed:

CHARLES SANDERFUR, fireman. The injured: Buers, engineer; badly injured. Ed Canfield, milk porter; received severe bruises about the head and shoulders.

The engine was completely demolished. A partially turned switch caused the wreck. The dead man and all the injured live at Effingham. None of the passengers were hurt.

Damage at Kalamazoo, Mich.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 16.—A terrific electric and rain storm visited this vicinity yesterday, the rain falling in torrents for several hours, the fall being about one inch. In many places about the city the inlets to manholes were stopped up and the streets were flooded. The large stone wall supporting the cement walk on the west side of Rosenbaum & Spryer's big department store was washed away, and the basement, which is used as a carpet department, was flooded, causing a damage to stock of about $1,200.

Lost an American's Property.

Sept. 16.—Facts were learned yesterday by the Spanish official, Havana, Cuba, have been made public through letters received in this city by Frederick R. Swift, editor of the Herald. John Repko, a citizen of the United States, has for eight years been the proprietor of the Grand Hotel Roma. The Spanish government, under a pretense of some new tax amounting to $800, seized the hotel at midnight and turned Mr. Repko and his family out of doors. His business, he says, was worth $80,000 at the time.

Man and Two Children Drowned.

Independence, Kan., Sept. 16.—Word reached here yesterday of the drowning of an unknown man and his two children while trying to cross the Verdigris river in a wagon near Talahala, I. T. The bodies have been recovered and the wagon found about a quarter of a mile downstream, but no one has been able to identify the bodies, and it is thought that they must have been strangers.

Defender Will Race Abroad.

New York, Sept. 16.—The Defender will go across the ocean early next year and race at Cannes and other Mediterranean regattas in the spring, and will then go to England and take part in the British yacht races. The Defender will be raced under the colors of W. K. Vanderbilt, who is now the chief owner of the yacht. It is said that he has furnished all the money to build and race the yacht, except 10,000, and that C. O. Iselin and ex-Commodore E. D. Morgan contributed, $5,000 each.

DEATH FOR SEVEN IN A BURNING BOAT

SIX PASSENGERS AND THE STEWARD PERISH.

Steamer Iola, Bound From Edinburgh to London, Catches Fire and Help Comes Too Late—Romans Celebrate—Monuments to Patriots to Be Dedicated.

London, Sept. 16.—Fire broke out on board the steamer Iola from Edinburgh today. Six passengers and the steward were burned to death before aid could be rendered.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 16.—The 2,000-ton China steamer Catterthun, bound from Sidney to China with eighty-one human beings on board, is lying many fathoms deep off Seal rock, near Port Stephen lighthouse. Only twenty-six lives were saved. The terrible details of the catastrophe fill many pages of Australian papers. The following are the names of the drowned: R. Frazer, Mrs. Mathias, Mrs. Loring, Miss Loring, Neil Shannon, Liverpool, master; W. P. Pinney, chief officer; Harold Leffler, third officer; R. H. Anderson, surgeon; J. H. Harper, Scotland, chief engineer; F. Wilson, second engineer; J. W. Adams, third engineer; A. Wolsteadholm, fourth engineer; R. Manning, chief steward; forty-one Chinese.

The accident was due to currents drifting the steamer on the rocks in the fury and darkness of the storm. Mrs. and Miss Loring were the wife and daughter of the secretary of the Imperial Federation League of Australia, and were well known in San Francisco, having been on their way there via China.

Romans Holding a Big Fete.

Rome, Sept. 16.—The fetes in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the occupation of Rome by the Italian patriots began yesterday. The actual date of the entrance of the troops under Cadorna is Sept. 20, but the events immediately leading up to occupation are included in the celebration. A procession marched to the Pantheon to visit the tomb of King Victor Emmanuel. The fetes are to continue until Sept. 29.—There are to be congresses of different kinds, including that of the Italian Historic Society of the Patriot Veterans, and retired soldiers lasting from the 19th to the 25th. The column at Port Apia and the monument to Garibaldi will be inaugurated the 20th, the monuments to Cavour and Minghetti the 22d; that to the Brothers Carroli at Villa Giori, the 24th, and that to Pietro Cossa at Ponte Umberto, the 28th. The evening of the 29th the festivals will close with a grand girandola. No protest was offered by the clericals.

Earthquake Story Denied.

Honduras, Sept. 16.—The statement that an earthquake occurred last Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with a loss of 300 lives, and causing destruction of a church and dwellings, is without foundation so far as is known in Tegucigalpa.

THE "TAC" SYSTEM.

Obno—Rule of Illinois Steel Com.

Sept. 16.—At the men of the Bay View wo. representatives of the Illinois Steel company Saturday night the discussion of "tags" amounted to little on either side. The meeting was secret. There was evident determination on the part of the men not to yield. Work is brisk at the rolling mills just now and it is hardly likely that the company will risk a strike by insisting on enforcing the rule. W. W. Simmons of Chicago and Superintendent Reis spoke at some length of the working of the number system, but as the men were very sensitive about the operation it was decided to adjourn and leave the matter open for two weeks.

Killed by a Powder Explosion.

Santa Cruz, Cal., Sept. 16.—An explosion in the smokeless department at the powder works yesterday killed one man and fatally burned another. The dead: GRIMM, MAXIE, aged 17.

The Injured.

About 650 pounds of powder being made for the Hotchkiss guns on the cruiser Boston went up in smoke. Howard's clothing was entirely burned off, and nearly every portion of his body is a mass of burns. The windows of the mill were broken but no damage was done to the press. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Populists Will Not Fuse.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 16.—Eight people's party conventions were held in Kansas Saturday, and without exception, they declared against fusion with the democrats. Up to this time there have been twenty-eight county populist conventions held in the state, and but three of them have consented to fusion and committed themselves to a combination ticket.

Welcome Spanish Soldiers.

Havana, Sept. 16.—The steamer Colon has arrived here, having on board the Rey battalion, consisting of 57 officers and 1,000 men, commanded by Gen. Madan. The reception accorded them was enthusiastic.

CHOLERA NEWS FROM CHINA.

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—The City of Rio Janeiro arrived this morning from China via Honolulu with important cholera news. She is detained in quarantine.

WILL NOT RACE AGAIN.

Commodore Smith States the Position of the New York Yacht Club. Stamford, Conn., Sept. 16.—Commodore Smith was interviewed at his home last night and said:

"I am perfectly justified in saying that there will be no more races between the Defender and Valkyrie III. That is positive. The unsatisfactory ending of the cup races will not necessarily put an end to international yacht racing. The New York Yacht Club course is the best outside course in the world, excepting none. It is out upon the Atlantic, free from all headlands, and the tides and currents are not very strong. So far as the crowding by tugs and steamboats is concerned, there is a good deal more room for them on this course than at Newport, Marblehead or any other course along the eastern coast. In my opinion any course would be equally crowded, because the American people are great enthusiasts on yacht racing. The people ought to see the race for the America's cup. It was won with the world looking on, and the world has watched all the races since. To sail races in secret would hold the custodian of the cup to universal contempt."

SLAIN BY A POSSE.

Double Murderer Refuses to Surrender to Deputy Marshals.

Sheridan, Wyo., Sept. 16.—H. R. Robinson, a Big Goose creek ranchman, and Herbert Zynville of the Works ranch, near this place, were murdered Saturday by an old man named James Walsh, who lived on the Robinson ranch. Walsh killed both his victims with a rifle, then started for the mountains, pursued by Sheriff Morrow. A quarrel over land ownership was the cause of the killing.

Walsh was shot and killed at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by William Sheriff Morrow and his posse. They beat the brush thoroughly along Big Goose creek, where Walsh had taken refuge, and finally scared him from cover. He ran through a cornfield with two or three men in pursuit. He was asked to surrender when the men caught up to him, but instead of complying leveled his gun at his pursuers. He was immediately shot and fell dead with three bullets through his body.

KILLED HIS RIVAL.

Jealousy Leads to Murder in An Alabama Town.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 16.—At Green Pond, Ala., Sidney Blackman, a young farmer, and George W. Catchings, a railroad man, were rivals for the affections of the same girl. Saturday night Blackman visited her. Catchings waited at the door to call, too, as soon as Blackman should leave. The latter remained until midnight, when Catchings, becoming impatient, knocked on the door. Blackman denied him admittance, when Catchings broke in the door. As soon as the men met they clinched, and a desperate struggle ensued, each one all the while endeavoring to draw his revolver. Blackman got his gun out first, and began firing, just as Catchings was drawing his weapon. Two bullets entered Catchings' head and one his breast, and he fell dead in the presence of the horror-stricken girl. Blackman fled, but has notified the sheriff of his intention to surrender and claim self.

Labor Troubles at Rockford, Ill.

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 16.—The strike at the Royal Mantel factory grows more serious daily, and the efforts of a large part of the police force are required to preserve peace between the striking workmen and the Chicago men who have filled their places. The American Federation of Labor gave the company a month to compromise, and the month is up to-day. If the company refused to take back the two men over whose discharge the strike arose, a general boycott will probably be proclaimed, affecting many institutions outside of Rockford. The officers of the company say they have no intention of yielding.

Boom in Lake Superior Mining.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 16.—The Lake Superior Mining company is about to erect a second mining plant at Hibbing, covering ten acres. Two shafts are already being sunk, and work will commence on two more at once. On the Sautry and Clark property, at Virginia, where seven new pits are being worked, the largest and best body of ore yet discovered in that section has been found. Not a pit but ends in ore, and the depth of the ore body is yet unknown.

Snowfall at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16.—The weather in this city yesterday was remarkably cool for this season of the year. The thermometer at 6 o'clock in the morning registered 45 degrees. In one part of West Philadelphia a light fall of snow was reported. Reports from Pottstown and other near-by localities show that heavy frosts prevail.

HORNBLOWER GOING ON SUPREME BENCH

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND HAS MADE UP HIS MIND.

Refusal of the Senate to Confirm a Year Ago, Disregarded—Opponent of Senator Hill Announced as Justice Jackson's Successor Without Any Question.

Washington, Sept. 16.—President Cleveland has determined to appoint Judge Hornblower to a place on the supreme bench, despite the refusal of the senate to confirm him a year ago. Hornblower represents the anti-Hill element in New York and the senator regarded his appointment as the most direct attack possible.

DAMAGE EXAGGERATED.

Crops in Missouri and Kansas Are Not Badly Hurt.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 16.—The report that floods in southwestern Missouri and southeastern Kansas will materially lessen the corn yield in those sections is exaggerated. In the first place, the floods are confined to river bottoms, whereas, 90 per cent of the corn is grown on prairies and on the "benches" of the Ozark foothills. A great deal of corn is grown in the bottoms, to be sure, but even there the cultivated ground that runs up to the creek's bank is usually sown in wheat, and for this very purpose, to avoid damage from a fall overflow, which is a very common occurrence. The bottoms of that part of the country are narrow and usually one farm will extend from the creek back onto a "bench." Corn, wherever practicable, is planted on the higher ground. Wheat was all harvested before the flood came.

Cannot Settle the Strike.

Ishpeming, Mich., Sept. 16.—Many of the strikers of Ishpeming and Negaunee made a strong effort to have the great strike declared off at Saturday's meeting of the miners. Nothing, however, was accomplished, as the strikers did not agree on any proposition advanced, and for a time it looked as though a genuine conflict might ensue. It is the intention of those who favor returning to work to bring the matter up for consideration again, but it is not likely a favorable decision will be reached. The members of the fire department at Negaunee have been sworn in as special police officers to assist in maintaining order in case of further outbreaks by mobs.

SHOULD RULE ROME AS A SOVEREIGN

IMPORTANT LETTER READ IN JANESVILLE CHURCHES.

Temporal Power For the Pope Demanded By the Milwaukee Archdiocese—Right of the Pontiff's Sovereignty—News Regarding Other Janesville Churches.

In both the Janesville Catholic churches Sunday, a letter was read demanding temporal power for the pope. The letter declares in unequivocal terms, that so far as the bishops of the archdiocese of Milwaukee are concerned, they are united in the belief that the temporal power of the pope should be restored. The letter was the result of a meeting of the bishops of the archdiocese, which was held Wednesday. This meeting was held in response to a letter which was sent out asking that all Catholics in this country unite in praying for the restoration of the temporal power of the pope as a sort of counter to the demonstrations which are being held in Italy, to celebrate the disestablishment of the papal power and the founding of the present government. The letter drafted there was read Sunday in all the Catholic churches in Milwaukee, throughout Wisconsin and the upper peninsula of Michigan.

Special Prayers for the Pope.

In St. Patrick's church special prayers for the restoration of temporal power to the pope will be offered next Sunday evening. In St. Mary's the special service is set for next Friday evening.

Opinion is divided among Catholics as to the policy of issuing a demand for temporal power at this time. The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

"Many of the laity and some of the clergy do not approve of its utterances. They believe that the letter can do no good and that it will only serve to fan the anti-Catholic agitation fever, which swept over the country two years ago. They regard the issuance of the letter as extremely impolitic as it is well known that the Catholic laity in this country are not enthusiastic supporters of the temporal power doctrine."

How to Help the Sunday School.

At the Presbyterian church those who attended the Y. P. S. C. E. received some very practical hints "How to help the Sunday School and get help from it." The evening sermon was a very impressive one, on the subject, "Impeached Testimony." It was a strong plea for a fair consideration of the Bible and the plan of salvation. Each ought to read and see and judge for himself fairly and thoughtfully. Also Christians ought to live such lives that their witness will help and not hinder the cause of Christ. The pastor, Rev. E. H. Pence, and also W. H. Blair, will attend the meeting of Madison Presbytery this coming week, at Cambria, Wisconsin.

Autumn leaves and golden rod were liberally used in decorating the pulpit platform of the Baptist church yesterday, with a particularly beautiful effect. In the morning the pastor gave a helpful sermon and in the evening the congregational society united with this church, Rev. Mr. Wilder preaching the sermon of the evening. Archie Crawford led the singing, in the absence of E. O. Kimberly, the regular leader.

"What we as a church are trying to teach is that religion is not too bright and good for human nature's daily food," said the Rev. Mr. Southworth in summing up his argument at All Son's church Sunday morning.

WILL ATTEND THE STATE RALLY
Christian Endeavorers From Janesville Plan to Visit La Crosse Oct. 3-6.

Local Endeavorers are busy planning to go to their state convention at La Crosse, Oct. 3-6. The railroads give a fare and a third rate from all parts of the state, and everything points to a large and enthusiastic meeting. Wisconsin is counted as one of the most enthusiastic states in Endeavor work, and is to be honored with the presence of General Secretary John Willis Barr, of Boston, Mass. F. A. Spoon, of this city, has the Congregational rally in charge, and is to have some of the brightest Congregational lights in the state for speakers. Rev. George R. Merrill, D. D., of Minneapolis, conducts three bible study hours, and gives an address Friday evening. Friday and Saturday at noon, evangelistic meetings, such as proved of such wonderful importance at the Boston convention, are to be held in numerous factories. Many other attractive features might be told, but we will let you digest these first. The Juniors are to have a grand time. Miss Harrington says their ally Saturday afternoon will be the most pleasing feature of the convention. Junior delegates are to be present from all parts of the state. It is hoped Janesville will send a large delegation to this convention, she being considered one of the strongholds in Christian Endeavor by other cities around the state.

The Endeavorers of the Baptist church held their monthly missionary meeting last evening. The leader told in a very interesting way, of life among the lumbermen of this state and Michigan. After living in the northern district for several months he was able to tell something of their lives, the hardness of their lot and how little help or sympathy they get from any one and how gratefully any effort made in their behalf was received. Afterward others told what they knew of these men and then practical means of helping them were suggested and adopted.

The Baptist Junior Endeavorers resumed their meeting yesterday. There was a large attendance, in spite of the threatening weather and the Juniors are making many plans for work for the winter.

Miss Mae Stevens Entertains Friends With An Amusing Innovation.

Miss Mae Stevens entertained fifty friends Saturday evening in honor of Miss Frances Bunker of Chicago. The parlor in which the guests were received was made beautiful with roses, and flowers diffused their fragrance throughout the house. There were eleven small tables with a different game at each. Miss Elizabeth Norcross and Arthur Hull showed rare versatility and were awarded handsome prizes for their skill, while Miss Cora Sutherland and Walter Field won consolation prizes. The guests were:

SCHOOL BOOK WAR GROWS LIVELY

S. B. Todd of the American Book Company in Town Today.

S. B. Todd is in town to take a hand in the school book war. He is Wisconsin and Michigan agent for the American Book Company the concern that newspapers used to call a trust but which the courts have decided is not. The American Book Company publishes Harper's geographies, and a proposition has been made to replace these in the Janesville schools by others.

"We want our books to stand or fall on their merits," said Mr. Todd today, "but we object to being met by talk of 'trust,' 'combine' etc. There is no trust about it and there is yet to be proven the first irregular thing about our business methods."

"I see we have been mentioned in connection with the Sheldon language books. We have nothing to do with them and some of my hardest fights have been against the Sheldon. Prof. Wayne will tell you this himself, for while he was in Fort Atkinson our entire list of books was thrown out and Sheldon's put in."

THEY BEAT LAKE GENEVA PLAYERS

Janesville Foot Ball Team Came Back With Colors Flying.

IT'S JAIL FOR HAHN; NOT MERELY A FINE

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JACKSON
GETS ANOTHER SCALP.

This Time It Is W. J. Hahn of Albany, Who Went to Evansville At the Woodmen's Picnic With a Wagon Load of Kegs—His Punishment Fixed at Three Months in Jail.

District Attorney W. A. Jackson has another scalp hanging on the inside wall of his wigwag.

It's the scalp of a "blind pig" man one that has often been sought, but seldom captured—to wit, William J. Hahn.

Mr. Hahn is no ordinary pig raiser; he is an expert. For many moons back he has been the proprietor of a certain resort known as "Camp 20" and located at Albany. Here, it has often been charged, he sold beer in defiance of the law. He was prosecuted numerous times and generally escaped altogether or was fined fifty dollars or so. This time it was different. Some days ago, it will be remembered, a big picnic of the Modern Woodmen of America was held at Evansville. Hahn, who is still the possessor of the property at Camp 20, made plans to show the people of Evansville "how to run a blind pig." Accordingly he loaded a wagon with beer and started for the Rock county village.

Ran Against a Snag.

The wagon with the oaken kegs rolled into Evansville the night before the picnic and was unloaded swiftly and silently. The next day business began, and it was of the land office sort.

But not for long.

Evansville has a city marshal and a good one. His name is suggestive of disasters and hard falls. It is Brink—Charles C. Brink. Mr. Hahn's business ran along smoothly until midnight and then it stopped with a jerk. The man with the suggestive name and the marshal's star came. He seized Mr. Hahn, legally and in fact, and read a warrant replete with allegations and charges, thereby placing the Albany man under the ban of the law. But Hahn only laughed. He knew the warrant by heart before Marshal Brink read it, and his mind was not troubled in the least. He was ready for trial when the case came before Justice W. R. Phillips at Evansville Saturday and sat with his attorney, William Smith of this city, smiling a confident smile.

Got a Jail Sentence.

Although Mr. Hahn was ready for trial he was hardly ready for the result thereof. There was a good crowd in Justice Phillips' office when the case was called. The state had four witnesses, who swore as to Mr. Hahn's picnic day business and as to the kind of beverage dispensed. Their stories all hung together nicely, and the state closed. The defense was confident and swore no witnesses. Then the arguments were made and the jury of six good men and true retired. They took one ballot and came back.

"We find the defendant guilty," they said.

Hahn only smiled.

"Three months in jail," said the justice in pronouncing sentence.

"What!" gasped Hahn, as his eyes opened wide in astonishment.

"Just three months in jail; no fine," replied the justice blandly, and Mr. Hahn nearly fainted.

Marshal Brink was standing near Hahn.

"Will you go to Albany with me while I get bail pending an appeal?" Hahn asked.

"I haven't time" Brink responded and Hahn looked gloomier than he has in years. Hahn was not brought down to jail, however, so he probably got bail and he will take the case to the municipal court. District Attorney Jackson got home at 6:25 Saturday night and was feeling quite well, thank you.

BICYCLERS PLAYED GOOD BALL

Visitors Warm Up the Janesville Boys in Eleven Hot Innings.

Threatening weather did not deter the Arrow Cycling club from entertaining the Rockford and Beloit Cycling clubs at a picnic up the river. The start was scheduled for 9 o'clock, but it was an hour after that time when the steamer Columbia with the party on board, left her dock bound for Magese's, seven miles up the Rock. That the committee of arrangements had done their allotted work well, was evidenced by the array of viands that occupied a good share of the forward part of the boat, or correctly speaking just abaft the jib boom. The sight gladdened the eyes of the passengers.

Long before the destination was reached it was a foregone conclusion that they were in for a wetting. They got it, but nobody's ardor was dampened, and after the storm had passed, interest centered in the chief event of the day, a game of ball between the Arrow and Rockford clubs. And such a game. The man whose individuality runs to lungs and excitement can thank his lucky stars that he was not there. If he had been he would be waiting at the doctor's office today with a misfit thorax. As it was several of the spectators remained rooted to the ground with their eyes sticking out into the gloaming like poached eggs, and when the time came to leave the umpire had to whisper gently to them that the game was over.

The battery of the Rockfords was Needham and Keys and of the locals Ford and Nolan.

Keys is a wonder. The upper part of his anatomy is fitted with a large trassom and when he is coaching the noise that comes out of this hole sounds like an anarchist denouncing the soap trust. But let that go. Eleven innings were played, at the end of which the score keepers announced that the visitors had been victorious by a score of 6 to 2. "Verbum sap." The umpire, was blamed for the defeat of the home team. He was not exactly to blame, either. Autumn is here. You can now strike at a fly and hit it. The cold wind will soon singing down the chimney, and the hired girl will be kicking for a stove in her room. Has the umpire no right to be sad? In this free land of ours where a soldier is paid thirteen dollars a month for facing a mob of strikers, and a pugilist $10,000 a night to face a single man is there no reason for grief? Far be it from any one to say aught in malice about the umpire.

But to return to the picnic. As the "Goway County Clarion" said of Sarah Martin's party, "a pleasant time was had" and the party returned to the city at 5 p. m. Among the visitors present were F. VanWart, J. Keitt, W. Wilson, H. Mills, C. Barker, Beloit, and Burt Keyes, Vic Johnson, "Cupid" Stevens, Will Cole, H. Needham, Chas. Jones, Jas. Galloway of Rockford. About thirty-five were present in all.

MRS. C. J. KANLEY BOBS UP AGAIN

Chicago Police Want Her To Do Some Explaining Now.

Good Mrs. C. J. Kanley is in trouble again. Mrs. Kanley is quite well known in Janesville, and her last visit here wound up with a day or two in jail. At that time she was engaged in finding homes for foundlings and taking subscriptions for a publication called "The Home Finder." Her methods were a bit peculiar and Chief Acheson, recognizing her as having been arrested here before, locked her up. Then she became highly indignant and made all kinds of threats. When the officers let her go, she went to Milwaukee and told her tale to a lawyer. The latter at once wrote letters to Chief Acheson and W. G. Palmer, informing them of the wrong done Mrs. Kanley, etc., but neither gentleman saw fit to contribute any money to heal her wounded feelings. Since then nothing has been heard of Mrs. Kanley. However, she is still in the ring, and the police of Chicago are making a quiet search for her, they being anxious to interview her and if possible find out some facts about the International Standard Aid Society.

Same Old Scheme Used.

Mrs. Kanley's methods do not seem to have changed. Miss Holmes secretary of the Bureau of "Charities of the Civic Federation, called at Mayor Swift's office and displayed a letterhead purporting to be that of the International Aid Society.

The paper bore the name of George B. Swift as president, Alonzo Wygant of the United States Express company as vice-president, J. Irving Pearce as treasurer and Frank Graham as secretary.

Mayor Swift was absent from the city, but his secretary said he was sure the Mayor had no knowledge of holding the office ascribed to him. Miss Holmes said she had called on Messrs. Wygant and Pearce, and were both equally ignorant of their official positions. Mr. Graham had not been found. On this the mayor's secretary set the detective department on the trail of Mrs. Kanley, who, it was alleged, bore a letter written on one of the alleged society's letter heads, and by virtue of this solicited subscriptions.

Miss Holmes is of the opinion that Mrs. Kanley will be found in close communication with two alleged clergymen who are suspected of conducting charitable enterprises for revenue only.

FAREWELL COMPANY FOR LYNN S. PEASE

PLEASANT AFFAIR AT THE STATE SCHOOL.

Teachers and Older Pupils Join In Assurances of Regard for the Retiring Superintendent and His Wife and In Welcoming the New Incumbent.

After spending a week with the new superintendent Mr. and Mrs. Pease late of the school for the blind went to Madison Saturday night to reside. A reception was held at the institute from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening tendered by the teachers and high school scholars which was of the character of a farewell to the retiring superintendent's family and a welcome to the new incumbents. The reception committee composed of six young ladies dressed in white seemed as much at home in greeting and presenting the guests as though no deprived of sight. The entire household was entertained in the assembly room and brief musical program with light refreshments and social chat caused the evening to pass quickly and pleasantly.

It was gratifying to note the warm attachments that existed between the superintendent and the school, showing that Mr. Pease's work, which has been thorough and faithful, was fully appreciated. Under his supervision the school has been graded and the home idea which is so often thought of first has been made incidental to the educational advantages, so that the school enjoys the reputation today of an educational institution of high efficiency as well as a home for the blind. The course of study is the high school course, with music and manual training classes added.

Miss L. J. Curtiss, the efficient matron, is assisted by Miss Eleanor Parks, who also is teacher of sewing. The staff includes Miss S. Augusta Watson, geography and United States history; Miss Frances M. Benson, history, literature and grammar; Miss Louisa M. Mosher, mathematics and science; Miss Elizabeth M. Abbott, primary; Miss Elsie Houghton, primary; Miss May Tuttle, kindergarten; Mrs. Joanna H. Jones, piano and orchestra; Miss Laura Engleson, piano; Miss Ellen Hanson, weaving; Miss C. Adele Williams, cooking; M. H. Gaebler, piano tuning; Joseph Preston, foreman in shops.

Mr. Pease spent a few days with the new superintendent, and rendered valuable assistance in opening the new year. The work had grown into his life and had become of absorbing interest, and his administration will long be remembered by his associates and pupils.

The year opens with an attendance of ninety-three, with several others to come this week. The new superintendent is made to feel at home, and that he is surrounded with an efficient and loyal staff of teachers, and the year should be profitable to the school.

THERE'S REASON IN IT.

DOGS DO NOT HAVE DYSPEPSIA.

Science Explains Why.

It may not be of surpassing interest to learn that dogs are very seldom troubled with indigestion, but the curiosity of science by revealing the reason of the dogs vigorous digestion will undoubtedly prove of great benefit to the thousands of American men and women who suffer, year in and year out from some form of indigestion. Stated in a few words, scientific investigation proves, that the gastric juice in the dogs stomach contains six times as much pepsin and twice as much hydro-chloric acid as the stomach of a man. It is the lack of gastric juice, pepsin and hydro-chloric and lactic acids that causes so much dyspepsia and stomach weakness and science has not been slow in supplying the treatment so plainly indicated, and the most successful and safest remedy ever advanced for the cure of indigestion is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they contain the Vegetable and fruit acids, pure pepsin, ginger and Golden Seal; they supply what every weak stomach lacks. They increase the amount of gastric juice, they digest the food perfectly. Rest and nourishment is Nature's cure for every disease and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia because they rest the overworked stomach and nourish the body.

Taken after meals they digest the food thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and poison the blood and nerves.

Full size package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 Cents, or by mail prepaid from The Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

And imagine that you can wander into any hardware store and be treated right. Experience teaches that unscrupulous dealers take advantage of unsuspecting customers. There are no angels back of our counters, but you will find that honest business methods prevail and that the "live and let live" policy is strictly adhered to. It is our aim to make each and every person who enters our establishment a customer, and it is only by giving them dollar for dollar goods, placing before them only such goods as we positively know to be value goods and will be a constant salesman for our establishment, that we can attain that end. And we are fast succeeding.

OUR STOCK OF

Hardware,
Tinware
Stoves,

THE DIAMOND.

Anson has become sore on Cincinnati crowds. He says they are among the worst in the league.

The Boston papers say that George Burnham is umpiring good ball, and that the players are abusing him simply from force of habit.

Manager Hanlon has great faith in young Pitcher Pond.

Buck Ewing expects to get Pitcher Phillips back from Indianapolis this fall.

The Pittsburg Times thinks Jim Hart's opposition to the double umpire system is due to the fear that Anson is getting too old to handle two of them.

A number of the New York players have been breaking club rules since President Freedman left for a trip to Nova Scotia.

er of regattas, and has figured largely in the Valkyrie-Defender races.

DECIDEDLY UNGRATEFUL.

Dr. Stucky Gives Dan Brouthers a Black Eye.

Captain Robinson claims to have a letter from Brouthers, saying that he would like to get into base-ball again; that he can play as well as ever, and asking him to assist him in getting an engagement. Apropos to this his treatment of Louisville puts him in a bad light, according to Dr. Stucky, president of the Louisville club. Dr. Stucky says:

"The Baltimore people simply wanted to pose as charitable brothers when they scattered broadcast the foolish story that they had made a great sacrifice and given us Brouthers for nothing. I gave the Baltimore club $500 for the release of Brouthers, and then could not sign him until I had made him a present of $200 cash in hand. When the big fellow got his money he also insisted on some salary in advance, then played with us two weeks, laying off for about one-third of the games during that time on account of alleged headaches, and other such things, and then skipped out, leaving us in the lurch. To top it all off I see he is quoted in several eastern papers as saying that we owe him $68 salary. If that isn't the quintessence of all that is nerry and gally I don't want a cent."

Postage Stamps.
The people of the United States use on an average 12,000,000 postage stamps of all kinds each and every day of the year, or a total of about 4,380,000,000 per annum.

Charged with Revenue Fraud.
Pawnee, Ok., Sept. 16.—Saturday night the United States grand jury returned forty-three indictments for pension frauds, involving many prominent citizens. Among those indicted are Charles M. Hill, county clerk; Peter J. Maurer, a pension agent, and Raf M. Weeks, a full blooded Pawnee Indian with a university education and a practicing lawyer. Over 100 fraudulent pensions had been obtained, most of them for Pawnee Indians, a number of whom were federal soldiers in the late war.

A Good Reason.
Little Johnny Fizzletop has the habit of waking up every night and demanding something to eat. At last his mother said to him:
"Look here, Johnny, I never want to eat anything in the night."
"Well, I don't think I'd care much to eat anything either in the night if I kept my teeth in a mug of water."—Texas Sittings.

A Crisis in Dry Goods.
Junior Partner—Too bad. There has been an accident to the machinery in the mill, and they can't send us any more of those goods at present.
Senior Partner—It is too bad. That closing-out sale will have to be postponed.—Brooklyn Life.

Only One Properly Equipped.
"Here's a match," exclaimed the first sweet girl when they had reached their room after an evening's spin on the boulevard. "Now, who will light the gas?"
"Give the match to Mabel," replied the second sweet girl. "She's the only one in bloomers."—Chicago Evening Post.

A Perfect Brute.
Helen—A man in the railway carriage I came up in must have been a perfect brute.
He—Why, dearest?
Helen—Why, I stood on his foot seventy times and he hadn't the manners to offer me his seat.—Penny Illustrated Paper.

Accepted.
She (coldly)—I hardly know how to receive your proposal. You know I am worth a million, of course.
He (diplomatically)—Yes—worth a million other girls.
She (rapturously)—O, Jack!—Truth.

Quite Likely.
He—Handsome woman, that Maj. Dodd's wife; but what loud gowns she wears.
She—I suppose because the major is so shockingly deaf, you know.—Bay City Chat.

REVIVING OLD MEMORIES.

He (after a very lengthy call)—Well, good evening.
She—Good evening. By the way, didn't you propose to me soon after you came in?
He (startled)—Why, yes, of course.
She (pleadingly)—Well, do tell me, like a good fellow, whether I accepted or rejected you.—Once a Week.

Squeezed the Hand of an Empress in the Fervor of Recitation.
G. W. Smalley, in "Studies of Men," relates the following incident: "Tennyson was one of the party invited some years since by Sir Donald Currie on a yachting trip, the yacht provided being an ocean steamer of the South Africa line, known as the Pembroke Castle. Mr. Gladstone was another guest. I think—certainly he was on one of the two or three trips then taken. There was on board a young English girl, since married and dead, whose beauty and intelligence and charm were all remarkable. Tennyson attached himself to this brilliant and sympathetic creature. He was often asked to read, and it became his habit to read holding her hand, which, in the fervor of recitation, he often pressed. The ship put in at Copenhagen, and the Princess of Wales and the Empress of Russia, then on a visit to her old home, came on board. There was luncheon, and after luncheon Tennyson was asked to read; and did, sitting between the Empress on one side and the English girl on the other. When it was over and they had gone up on deck, he asked the girl whether she thought the Empress liked it. 'Well,' answered she, 'her Majesty must have thought it a little unusual.' 'What do you mean?' 'I mean that I don't think the Empress is in the habit of having her hand squeezed in public even by poets.' It seemed proper to Tennyson to offer to the Empress his most humble apologies for his mistake. The Empress laughed, and told him she had enjoyed the reading extremely."

Looked Only at Results.
"Gracious, Smedley, who's been pulling your whiskers out?"
"My baby did it."
"Heaven, man; you're disfiguring yourself that way."
"Yes, I know, but you see it keeps the baby quiet."

A Looker-On in Gotham.
Mrs. Meadow—I don't wonder there is so much poverty in the city. I seen the cause of it all the other day when I was there.
Neighbor—What did you notice?
Mrs. Meadow—Idleness. Never saw such idleness. 'Bout half the people was loafin' on the corners lookin' at the thermometers, and the other half was rushin' around huntin' for standin' room near some other thermometer.

Wyoming Horses Sold for a Song.
In the great horse raising state of Wyoming the lower grade of horses are now being sold at $3 a dozen, while sound, unbroken mustangs can be had for $1 each, and a thoroughly broken horse, sound in every way, for from $6 to $8. Thus are the mighty fallen before the advance of the electric and cable car, the horseless carriage and the bicycle.

A Vicious Criticism.
"Miss De Puyser has a magnificent new piano next door."
"Listen—isn't she playing on it now?"
"Yes, that is she."
"Well," after a pause, "I should think she'd be able to get worse music out of a cheaper instrument."

God is motherhood multiplied by infinity.

Enlisting Indian Fighters.
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 16.—The American council of the Cuban revolutionary party seems to be leaving no stone unturned in its efforts to secure veteran fighters to enter its service and help the patriots of that rich little isle in their struggle for freedom. An agent of the junta has been in St. Louis for the past two weeks negotiating with Buck Taylor, the famous Indian fighter and scout, with a view of securing his services. The idea is to have Taylor enlist a company of genuine Indian fighters, and take them to Cuba. Taylor has accepted the mission.

BROUGHT IN COURT FOR FIGHTY WAYSTHREE GIRLS CHARGED WITH DISORDERLY PRACTICES.

Prosecution Was Under a City Ordinance and If the Defendants Go to Jail the City Must Settle Their Board Bill—Shumacher Case Dismissed—Other Court Proceedings.

Mrs. Mary Nichols, who resides at the corner of Wall and Madison streets, is now short a few boarders. They are Alice Kath, Minnie Tyler, and Mrs. Nichols' daughter, Ella Ayers. This morning the three young women were brought before Judge Phelps in the municipal court.

All three pleaded not guilty this morning, but this afternoon they withdrew that plea, and pleaded guilty, whereupon Judge Phelps assessed a penalty of $25 and costs against each.

The prosecution was brought under the city ordinance to prevent disorderly practices, but under its provisions, all that can be done, upon the refusal of the defendants to pay the fine, is to get a body execution and put them in jail.

The Nichols domicile has been very disorderly for some time past, and many complaints have been made concerning it. Saturday night Officer Hogan arrested Alice Kath and took her to jail, after which Sheriff Appleby went up and got Minnie Tyler and Ella Ayers. The neighbors say the resort has been a sort of a "mad-house", and the carryings on were grotesque to say the least. The complaints were made under the city ordinance to prevent disorderly practices and City Attorney McElroy appeared for the prosecution.

Mrs. Nichols Is Laid Up.
Mrs. Nichols was not in court today. She was bitten by a spider and her foot swelled to twice its natural size. She could not be moved to jail but her case will be heard later.

Patrick Mulcairn was before the court this morning for the continuance of his examination on the charge of the larceny of $10 from the person of Con. O'Leary, but District Attorney Jackson asked for adjournment until September 23 on account of the absence of a witness for the state. Mulcairn could not get $500 bail and was taken back to jail.

The case of the state against Emil Schumacher was charged with diverting the water at Monterey away from the cotton mill wheels was called, and on motion of District Attorney Jackson, the action was dismissed on the payment of the costs. The points at issue have been passed upon by Judge Bennett in another case.

Charles Hamilton and John Cullen were fined $1 and costs each and James Cox $10 and costs for drunkenness. Cox goes to jail for fifteen days in default of payment.

SOME POINTS OF A PERSONAL SORT

Miss Blanche Hyde sang in All Souls church Sunday, and was greeted by complimentary expressions at the close of the service. It will be good news to many that Miss Hyde has determined to remain in the city. For a time she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Treat.

Ed. Bingham, who has won honors for Montgomery, Ward & Co., in so many trap-shooting contests, was in the city this morning on his way from Koshkonong to Chicago. He and F. P. Stannard, his running mate, have been doing great shooting this summer.

Mrs. Phil Mitchell, of Rock Island, Ill., arrived in Janesville today and is the guest of her brother, Dr. Thor Judd. Mrs. Mitchell's arrival completes the circle of the Judd family, and the first reunion in ten years is being fully enjoyed.

Ellsworth Owen, Edmund Enright, Edwin B. Halverson, Miss Laverne Gillies and Miss Mattie Shoppell left today for Beloit, where they will enter the college.

Mrs. F. C. Angel and son Harry, of Sioux Falls, S. D., are the guests of Mrs. Angel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Knippenberg, 106 Hickory street.

Mrs. and Mrs. P. L. Henrich returned home from Boston Saturday night, after an enjoyable week at the Hub with the National Association of Ticket Agents.

Rev. A. E. Robb, colored evangelist and returned missionary from Africa is in the city looking for a place to hold evangelistic meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rich are on their way to Pittsburgh and other eastern points, for a brief visit. They started this morning.

Herman Heise, formerly with H. C. Frick, but now the "whole thing" on the Clinton Banner, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. J. F. McGrew, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buob, has returned home.

Mrs. H. C. Lester of Sparta, Wis., is visiting her sister, Dr. Georgia E. Lake, 213 Terrace street.

E. R. Inman returned to Milwaukee Saturday after a two days' sojourn.

A. M. Valentine returned from Koshkonong this morning.

Ogden H. Fethers is in Chicago on legal business.

Miss Millie Chittenden is visiting in Milwaukee.

Whisk Brooms.

New lot just received at Lowell's Annex, large and well made.

MADE ONE AT THE ALTAR.

Cabeen-Jerg.
Miss Emma A. Jerg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Jerg, and Peter Cabeen, were quietly married by Rev. Father Roche at St. Mary's church at 8 o'clock this morning. Miss Shekey and Alfred Jerg acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen and the ceremony was witnessed by relatives and friends only. The bride has lived in the Bower City all her life and made, during that time, a large circle of friends. The groom is an engineer on the Chicago and Northwestern road and is well and favorably known. Many friends will wish Mr. and Mrs. Cabeen long life and happiness. After a wedding trip that will take them to Milwaukee and St. Paul Mr. and Mrs. Cabeen will return to Janesville to live.

Cunningham-McCaffrey.

Edward J. Cunningham, formerly of this city, but now of Chicago, and Miss Julia McCaffrey of Beaver Dam, were married at 9 o'clock this morning, at St. Jarlath's church, Chicago. Miss Margaret McCaffrey, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Joseph Cunningham, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Cox. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham will reside at 290 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago. Jerome Cunningham, of this city, was one of the guests.

Mrs. Robert A. Addison.

Mrs. Ada A. Addison, wife of Robert A. Addison, died at her home over Tarrant & Osgood's grocery store at 10 o'clock last night of cancer of the stomach aged 31 years. Besides a husband, one daughter is left to mourn, she being a babe but ten weeks of age. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

Another Carload.

Now is your last chance to buy the best peaches that have been put in the city this season, for less money than ever. As this is the second car we are unloading today, it may be the last. Everybody knows that what we sell we stand back of. Come and see us and satisfy yourselves. Don't forget the number 6 South Main street. John Spivak.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Pfennig & Moerer having been dissolved by mutual consent, I beg leave to announce that I am doing business at the old stand in the Armory block. All insurance, real estate, loan and steamship business entrusted to me will receive prompt attention. Call and see me. H. A. Moerer.

LONG C. & N. W. TRAIN
WRECKED BY WINDELEVEN CARS BLOWN DOWN
AN ENSANKMENT.

Three Railroad Men Well Known In This City Seriously Injured By An Accident But None Fatally—Storm Seemed to Be About Half a Mile Wide.

Three railroad men well known in this city, were hurt seriously Sunday afternoon. They were on a C. & N. W. freight coming from Madison to Janesville and the train flew off the track. The injured are:

CONDUCTOR HENRY STARR, Baraboo, injured about the face and head.

BRAKEMAN JOSEPH FELTZ, Baraboo, injured internally.

BLANK FOLEY, Evansville, baggage master, leg broken and mangled, amputation necessary.

A one-armed tramp, who was in one of the box cars, was badly injured about the head and body.

Three other tramps and a boy stealing a ride in the car next to the ones blown off the track escaped uninjured. The wind was most severe on a strip about half a mile wide, where it had a straight sweep across the fields. When the train struck this spot the cars and a caboose were blown from the track and scattered at the foot of the embankment twenty-five feet below.

Half of the train, including the engine, was out of the cyclone's path, and remained on the track uninjured. A large number of big trees at the scene of the wreck were uprooted.

Foley, who has boarded here, but whose home is in Evansville, was taken to Evansville on the 6:25 train last evening.

BRAKEMAN DANGLE'S ARM HURT

Caught Between the Bumpers While Coupling Cars Here.

Brakeman Andrew Dangle of the Chicago & Northwestern road had his arm severely squeezed between the deadwoods of two freight cars while working in the Janesville yards Saturday night. Two deep gashes were cut near the elbow while the arm was otherwise severely injured. Dr. W. B. Metcalf, acting surgeon for the company, dressed the injury in the absence of Dr. W. H. Palmer and Dangle was taken to his home in Baraboo on the limited.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

A suit of clothing that looks well wears well and feels well on the boy must necessarily be made of good material no matter what the price may be. Boys are harder on clothing than any one else. Our boys suits are honestly made in every way. We buy them to fit, wear and sell. Come and inspect the stock. Frank H. Baack.

Clothing as described in our large ad today, is not the kind so common in most of the clothing stores. It is tailor made in every respect. We select our own clothes and trimmings, and our suits are made by experienced hands. We show good, stylish, durable suits at $10 to $15 dollars. T. J. Ziegler.

Our children's department is chock full of good things in the way of boys' suits. We can sell to you dead certain if you wish to buy clothing for the boys. We certainly have the requirements. Frank H. Baack.

They make friends wherever they go. The Henney as an all-around buggy becomes more popular the more it is shown. If you have buggy on the brain, come and see us. F. A. Taylor.

The famous Henney's are again back in our repository. We showed them to many people at the fair and expect some of those same people will be buyers. F. A. Taylor.

We can fit you promptly with our summer stock, and we can fit you with the finest goods in the county at the lowest prices ever heard. Brown Brothers & Lincoln.

Read Bort, Bailey & Co's, large ad for underwear bargains. Beginning Monday they will sell these goods at prices before unequalled.

For the misses and children we have a nice little shoe in lace or button, and it will wear. Call and see them. Lloyd & Son.

We have a fine line of little girls' school shoes, lace, pointed toe just what the boys want. Lloyd & Son.

New banquet lamps $1.50 up, at Wheelock's.

Garland stove and range at Lowell's.

Free Reading Matter.

The free reading matter coupon system is about ready to commence operations here. The coupon book will be here in a few days. The list of merchants who will receive the free reading matter coupon is nearly completed. Then we will distribute them at every house in the city. Be sure and get one. They are free. By using them you can have any newspaper or magazine free. The whole plan is explained in the coupon book. The canvasser will also explain it to you. It is new to Janesville but has been in operation in Elgin nearly a year now. The people are wonderfully pleased with it there. The managers just made their second contracts with merchants and everybody wanted it. The manager, A. C. Switzer has moved his family here and will be here to personally attend to it.

The Shining Light

Made by our lamps are clearing away a house by its gloom already. We are selling a great many lamps at low prices. Great assortment to select from. Lowell's Annex.

WHAT YOU HEAR AROUND TOWN

The past two weeks have been lively ones with us, every day bringing fresh arrivals of fall goods, and we are making no rash statement when we say we have Janesville's representative stock of up-to-date dry goods. Especially is this true of the dress goods department, which is showing a most excellent line of all that's new, also a very complete lining stock. For outside wear we have received an enormous showing of the new capes and jackets both cloth and fur in connection with which are about 400 misses' jackets, eight to eighteen years. Archie Reid & Co.

Yes, we are the people who sell shoes at 50 cents on the dollar of their factory cost. We have over $8,000 worth of our Fond du Lac stock left. These goods stand us less than 30 cents on the dollar. That's how we can sell them to you at 50 cents on the dollar. No wonder our competitors admit that they cannot meet our prices. We warrant every pair. Becker & Woodruff.

We are here to stay, with our same low prices as before the rise in stock. Why? Because we bought our fall stock last March before the rise and the factories have to make our goods for us for what we bought for. We will sell them to you likewise. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

SCHOOL PAPER—The scholars of the Janesville High school will publish a school paper the first issue of which will appear Oct. 16. John McElroy will be the editor, Mark McNamara local editor, while Miss Susie Lowell will be in charge of the ladies department.

We do not claim to be the only people in the shoe business in the city, but we do claim to do as much business as all the other folks together. Watch us and you will see that we claim nothing but what belongs to us. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

THANKS—The members of W. H. Sargent W. R. C. No. 21, desire to thank all who assisted at the flag raising at the new high school on Saturday last, either by appearing on the programme or in any other capacity. By order of committee.

PAPER—Alderman F. S. Winslow sends The Gazette a copy of the Louisville Courier-Journal containing an account of the great G. A. R. encampment. Dr. J. B. Whiting's portrait is published in their account of the proceedings.

We want you to see our new styles in gents' patent leather and calf shoes for fall and winter wear. You will find nothing like them elsewhere—handsome, stylish, comfortable. Becker & Woodruff.

It is not often you can buy 50 cent pants for 25 cents, but that is just what Bort, Bailey & Co. are selling. It will pay you to investigate this great offer.

We are selling a heavy French outing flannel night robe for gents at $1. They are splendidly made, cut sixty inches long, and are just the thing for cold nights. T. J. Ziegler.

LAST Saturday was indeed a school shoe day with us. We are showing more new shapes than any dealer in Janesville. Becker & Woodruff.

SCHOOL houses in Janesville are pretty well filled with children wearing our school shoes, and you bet they are well shod. Becker & Woodruff.

Don't fail to attend Bort, Bailey & Co. special sale of underwear commencing Monday. Better bargains than ever before.

TICKETS—Janesville people didn't travel much last week and still the C. & N. W. ticket sales at this station were $1,154.

Do you want good shoes for your money? That is the kind we keep. No shoddy line; every pair warranted. Lloyd & Son.

WANTED—A first class girl for general housework in a small family. Mrs. A. F. Hall, 204 South Second street.

For ladies' or gents' shoes come to us. We have just received a fine line in the latest styles. Lloyd & Son.

WITH our Pickwick clothing we can fit the hardest to fit man. Read our large ad on page 8. T. J. Ziegler.

Don't forget Baack's children's suit department is ready for inspection.

Dress goods, knowledge, today's a look it up. Archie Reid & Co.

MANAGERS PAY MUCH.

THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS IN ONE STAGE PICTURE.Production of "The Sporting Duchess" in New York Full of Eye-Bewildering
Colors—Money Spent on the Scenic Effects of New Plays.

THEATRICAL managers are spending money with a lavish hand this year. Never before in the history of the American drama has so much money been invested in plays. Charles Frohman, of the Empire

Theater, New York, who is probably the largest and most liberal purchaser of dramatic material, says he will begin the season with more than twice the amount invested that he had at this time last year, and when he had returned from Europe last year he had over $60,000 invested in manuscript plays alone. A. M. Palmer, Daniel Frohman and the other play-producing managers of that city have gone correspondingly deep into their bank accounts, and it will be cause for surprise if out of all the material they have purchased abroad and at home there are not several good things that will please the public.

The American dramatist—fortunate fellow that he is getting to be—will share in the distribution of the managerial shekels with his cousins across the water. Several American plays of importance are booked for production, and it is not at all unlikely that after the multi-colored play of Paris life, "The City of Pleasure," the Empire Theater will be devoted almost exclusively this season to American plays. Henry Guy Carleton's new comedy will be presented there by John Drew and his company, and the regular stock sea on of the modish house will begin with Bronson Howard's new comedy, yet unnamed, which was crowded to the wall last season by Henry Arthur Jones's "The Masqueraders." The Empire is mentioned in illustration of the American playwright's chances, because its manager, Charles Frohman, has the pick of all first-class European productions, and the fact that his theater is to have so much of the play output of this side of the Atlantic means that the hitherto comparatively neglected American play-maker has this season the best opportunity he ever had in his life.

CHARLES FROHMAN.

Going back to the original statement that more money has been put into plays this year than ever before, emphasis of the fact will be had at the very threshold of the season. The big production at the Academy of Music of "The Sporting Duchess" affords elaborate and glittering demonstration of it. It is said that upon one scene in this melodrama Charles Frohman has expended over $30,000.

The scene far exceeds in eye-inviting beauty and money investment the brilliant scene in "The Masqueraders," in which there were nearly $20,000 worth of French and English gowns. That scene was Lady Skene's reception. Everything in it was imported, even the gas fixtures, and the furniture was so expensive that the custom house valuation of a single chair was $138. The men wore evening dress and so contributed little to the color of the picture. The $30,000 scene is much more imposing. It is a regimental ball at York, and that means that military braids and aiguillettes, and colors must be in abundant evidence to heighten the splendor of the picture. There are on hand not only officers of English regiments, but all civilized nations are represented in the assemblage, a uniform or two from the crack regiments of Germany, France, Austria, Russia, etc., being worn by the shapely young gentlemen who will participate in the revel.

These costumes have been imported direct from the capitals of the countries represented; they are the richest lot of uniforms that money could buy, and they are all the finest ever worn on a parade ground or in a ball room. The Academy of Music stage has large dimensions, and the ball-room scene is vast and impressive.

The regimental brilliancy is supplemented by a millinery display, grander and more costly even than that of "The Masqueraders," which was the talk of the town for several months. Over two dozen toilets, the latest model, and all foreshadowing something new in the line of women's dress, are nightly on view. These costumes have been imported, and $200, $300 and $500 dresses are common among them. The surroundings are adequately grand, and it is expected that this regimental ball scene will outshine all previous efforts at stage splendor in drama or melodrama.

This description concerns only the sartorial splendors of the minor people in the cast. What Agnes Booth's dresses cost has not been given, but she plays the roll of the eccentric and wealthy Duchess of Milford, who was in real life the Duchess of Montrose, and, of course, must uphold the dignity and magnificence of her character at several hundred dollars per dress more than the ladies who haven't even a line to speak. The Duchess of Montrose was an extravagant and lively dresser, and her stage replica must be the same. To describe all the costumes that Agnes Booth wears in the role would require the space of a three-volume novel.

But from the time she appears in her gorgeous dinner gown in Act I, till she visits her grandson in Act IV, in a white moire carriage dress, striped with black satin and laden with jet, down to her final appearance on the Derby race-course in her "colors," she is a constantly changing vision of rustling silks, glittering gems and brilliant hues. Her race dress is a sight for "sair een," being a superb black satin, brocaded with huge pink flowers and green foliage. One sleeve is red velvet, the other is green velvet, and the front of the bodice is rose pink chiffon. On her head she wears a rakish black lace and jet hat, trimmed; as a finishing touch of startling grandeur, with red and pink feathers.

A NOTE OF WARNING.

"Dusty" Miller Said to Be Dallying With the Player's Deadly Enemy.

Millersburg is mourning over the temporary fall of her hero. It is useless to deny that Miller has slumped fearfully in his play both at the bat and in the field during the past few weeks. There are a lot of wise men who are spreading broadcast the solution of the mystery. "Dusty Bob" Miller is not a disciple of Francis Murphy and does not wear a blue ribbon. If he did it would be the easiest matter in the world to fling denials at those who have tales of ghost dances at Bacchus' shrine to tell. Miller is what you might term a moderate dallyer with the liquids that are bottled up. He once conquered an appetite that has wrecked many a better ball player than he is or ever will be. King Kel traded life for pleasure and grave diggers gave him the prize that he won. In all kindness these words are penned. The ball player who dallies with booze is flirting with an enemy that can break more friendships in less time than any other advance agent of Bad Luck. Everybody knows that the base ball public is fickle. The growing about Miller's play is evidence along that line. "Dusty Bob" may think that he can stay on this side of the danger line. Perhaps he can, but the consensus of opinion is that if he sprinkled chloride of lime on old King Alcohol, Miller would rank as one of the greatest players the league ever saw. One of the best stories "Dusty Bob" ever told is that of his rescue from pitfalls worse than any he has ever found in Cincinnati. Millersburg has been proud of her hero, and if "Dusty Bob" is true to himself and true to the club, Cincinnati will never be called upon to apologise for the shortcomings of her star rightfielder.—Cincinnati Post.

A Young Bridge-Jumper.

A Pennsylvania story says that Patsy Davis, 13 years old, made a daring leap from the top of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad bridge into Chester Creek the other day. He asked some men for a chew of tobacco, and one of them said he would give it to him if he would jump from the bridge. Patsy accepted the offer and immediately clambered to the top, about ninety feet above the water. The tremendous height did not scare him, and, without taking off his clothes, he sprang into the air. He struck the water with a resounding smack and disappeared. After a dozen seconds he reappeared, shook the water out of his eyes and swam leisurely to the shore.

Not Like Them.
 "Yes," remarked Cholley to his tailor, "it's not a bad thing for you to have me among your patrons, you know."
 "Perhaps not," was the rather doubtful response.
 "My family name, being so well known in the community, is quite—ah—quite an advertisement for you. My forefathers, as you are doubtless aware, were early settlers."
 "Yes; I've heard so. But I must say, sir, that in that respect you don't seem to take after them in the least."—Washington Star.

Returning His Thanks.
 "We acknowledge the compliment of a serenade from the Grayville Silver Cornet band on the occasion of its visit to our city a few days ago," wrote Editor Clugston, of the Spiketown Blizard. "While truth compels us to say the music was simply infamous, we yet recognize the kindly spirit that prompted the serenade and admire the band's superb exhibition of nerve. Come again, boys, and play a shorter piece."—Chicago Tribune.

Not Likely, However.

Definitions !

From the "Dry Goods Economist," New York, applicable to the

NEW DRESS FABRICS

And with which you can become better acquainted by a visit to the dress goods department—where prices are not high.

: : Now on the Counters

ARMURE—Any fancy weave may be called an Armure, the effect being one of weave and not of color.

BOUCLE (from the French boucle)—A lock of hair, implying similar effects on a fabric's surface.

BOURETTE—Rough threads appearing in lines, straight or broken.

HARLEQUIN CHECKS—Those of three or more distinct colors.

IRIDESCENT—Rainbow and shot color effects.

MELANGE—Mixed. Applied to Woolen goods woven in two colors.

NATTE—Tressed or basket weave. Goods woven into small checks in the same or in different colors, giving the goods the appearance of being braided.

: : Out of Today

ANTIQUÉ—Applied to some fabrics made in former centuries, and for which you will have to look elsewhere as we show only '95 ideas.

Pattern Dresses—Novelties in a large array.
